SAN DIEGO – March 21, 2008 – Sentek Consulting, a provider of enterprise information technology solutions for commercial and government organizations, announced today its recent placement among the area’s top defense contractors by the San Diego Business Journal.

The company experienced a more than six-fold increase in the value of awarded contracts, and was ranked 28th in the most recent listing by San Diego’s weekly business publication.

“In response to our rapid growth, we’ve nearly doubled our staff and support operations,” said Eric Basu, president and CEO of Sentek Consulting. “While I’m proud and appreciative of the recognition, I’m prouder still of what it means about our people and the work they’re doing on behalf of military and civilian organizations.”

The company’s recent San Diego Business Journal placement comes on the heels of being named the 12th largest locally-based software company by the publication. Sentek Consulting’s management team includes retired senior military and government personnel, each with decades of experience in areas such as IT architecture, Command and Control systems, Anti-terrorism, Special Operations, Military infrastructure and other key areas. The company has developed a reputation for providing unique and invaluable expertise to assist our clients in meeting their requirements, expanding their programs and accomplishing their missions.
