

Sentek gets Navy IT contract

San Diego company will support command and control technology

BY MIKE FREEMAN

ORIGINALLY PUBLISHED APRIL 28, 2011 AT 1:20 P.M., UPDATED APRIL 28, 2011 AT 1:21 P.M.

Sentek Global, a San Diego information technology security and consulting firm, said the U.S. Navy's Space and Naval Warfare Systems Command awarded Sentek a five-year, $70 million contract.

Sentek will provide systems engineering and technical assistance for a command and control program.

"This is our largest SeaPort-enhanced task order to date," said Eric Basu, president of Sentek.